Easy-to-Use, Online Lead Generation and Property Research Tool for Today's Busy Real Estate Professional

Real estate professionals that need on-demand and affordable access to current property data rely on Black Knight's AgentPro247.com, a self-service research and lead generation tool. With AgentPro247.com, you can easily generate FARM lists, create CMAs, obtain property values and more.

AgentPro247.com leverages Black Knight's industry-leading, accurate and current property data to deliver the quality information you need to grow your business. In addition, this easy-to-use solution allows you to purchase a monthly subscription for reports. Pay-as-you-go is also available through our Web-based storefront.

AgentPro247.com delivers:

- Customized Property Profiles – includes transaction history with mortgage and foreclosure data, comparables, aerial search and print; allows reports to be rebranded
- Foreclosure Lists – enables you to search by stage/type, recording date and loan amount
- Tax Reports – provides estimated property tax reports for listings
- Short Sale/Loan Modification Leads – allows you to search for loan modification candidates by owner-occupied, single-family residence, specific lenders, conforming loan amounts and other criteria
- ARM Reset Leads – indicates owner-occupied, LTV, upcoming rate adjustment and other details that might help you find potential sellers
- FARM Lists – allows you to create flyers/direct mail campaigns ("just sold!") for your area by searching sale price, square footage, phone number and zoning

To view our demo or get started, simply go to www.agentpro247.com and click on the "Subscribe Now" button. After you have subscribed, you can use your credit card to purchase the reports you create. Prices are based on volume.

With AgentPro247.com, researching properties to identify listings and generating new leads for your business has never been easier.
